Christoph D. Wahlen--Founder of PRO Mental Coaching

Mental Coach and best-selling author, Christoph D. Wahlen, started his investment career 1986 at SocGen's capital market division as an analyst. He graduated from University of Trier (Germany) MBA program, and Vanderbilt University Business School, majoring in Marketing and Finance. He (co-)founded start-up companies (some are now within the Google portfolio, some in the financial service field), and worked at senior sales and marketing positions at blue chip companies. He covers topics as neuro-economics, trading psychology, and developing a successful trading mind.

Joseph James--Founder & CEO of SchoolOfTrade.com

Joseph James is the Founder & CEO of SchoolOfTrade.com, an online education website based in Los Angeles, CA.

◆ Joseph James has been trading Futures and FOREX since the year 2000. After 3 years of very successful trading, Joseph opened his first Hedge Fund in 2003, and created the SchoolOfTrade.com, an online education website based in Los Angeles, California, in 2007. In 2013, Joseph has grown SchoolOfTrade.com into the #1 day trading educational website available online, and is known as an industry leader in education and development of new day trading strategies for markets around the world. Joseph operates a 'Live Trade Room' every day with his students at SchoolOfTrade.com where he provides clear entry and exit signals so that his students may trade alongside him to earn profits while they learn how to trade for profits on their own.

◆ Joseph focuses on day trading Crude Oil, Gold, Euro, and the E-Mini Stock Index Futures in the United States, while his methods have been successfully applied to equities on the Shanghai, Tokyo, Singapore, and Korean Stock Exchanges by his students from around the world. In addition to the Live Trade Room, Joseph also provides automated trading systems, technical indicators, charting templates, and on-going training for each of his students. Joseph is known as one of the most motivating personalities in the day trading industry, and is committed to making each of his students a success using his day trading methods. Joseph will be trading LIVE and will be discussing 'Low Risk, High Reward Scalping Strategies for Crude Oil and Gold Futures'.
